STANDING RESOLUTION, REFERRING TO HOSPITAL FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Resolution offered by W. Freeland Kendrick, Imperial Potentate:

I hereby offer the following resolution:

That a resolution be adopted, authorizing the establishment of a hospital for crippled children, to be supported by the Nobility of the Mystic Shrine of North America, on an annual per capita basis, and to be known as the Shrine's Hospital for Crippled Children. I, furthermore, recommend that an assessment of $2.00 per capita be levied upon our entire membership, to be collected by the various subordinate Temples with the dues, payable in advance in December, 1920, and the amounts to be paid to the Imperial Recorder not later than February 21, 1921. I further recommend that a committee of seven be appointed by the incoming Imperial Potentate to select a site and secure plans and specifications, and arrange for immediate action in regard to the details in connection with the establishment of such a hospital.

I further recommend that additional assessments be levied annually as may be required for the support of said institution.

This resolution was unanimously adopted.

This means that every member of Aleppo Temple (life members included) is assessed $2.00.

The point to be emphasized is that the assessment should be paid with the annual dues for 1921, which are payable in advance in December, 1920.

LIFE MEMBERS	Assessment	2.00

The Shrine is Committed to Hospital

SHRINERS OF NORTH AMERICA are definitely committed to the construction and maintenance of a nonsectarian hospital for crippled children.

That action was taken by the Imperial Council at Portland.

It means that Shrineism has undertaken a mighty task, but one that will pay dividends in better bodies, better citizens, and better brains.

Picture in your minds a huge building midst delightful surroundings where the most skillful fingers in the world are ready for the task of straightening little crooked backs, where little twisted feet may be mended, a place to which the kiddies will come on crutches and in wheel chairs and from which they will walk away as upright men and women, ready to make their own way.

Can you see the pain-twisted little faces, some of them having an air of hopelessness, as they reach that pleasant, bright, and beautiful building that we are constructing on the action of the Imperial Council? Can you feel with those children the hope that surges in their little hearts that the big doctor will be able to make them run and jump and play like the other kids on the block?

Can you realize just how the parents of one of those deformed unfortunate will watch and wait for the time to come when they can ask that their child be given the chance that it has never had for a sound body?

Doesn't it look good?

You know it does. That action takes away the mystery from the Mystic Shrine, and reveals to all the world its great heart, throbbing with a desire to make the world a little happier.

There is not any doubt about the home. It will be built, but it will take a little time. The plan must be decided upon in detail, the location must be selected, the money must be gathered from all sections of the earth to which the Nobility is scattered. And it takes a lot of two dollar bills in the aggregate.

But how cheerfully that money is going to be paid by the Nobility! Knowing, as they do, that a million dollars handed by one man can accomplish much more than a million dollars handed by half a million men, there are going to be few objectors and no delinquents. In these days of h. c. l., two dollars wouldn't buy a pair of crutches for a sparrow, but when a thousand Nobles put their two dollar pieces in one hat they have a fund that will hire a specialist and cure the patient.

There is the idea.

We are going to do something collectively that we could not do as individuals.

But every individual is doing his share.

And there is another point that ought to be brought out about the hospital for crippled children. It gives Shrineism an argument we have been weak on when some of the brethren reproached us with accomplishing nothing of a solid, concrete, upbuilding nature. With the hospital for crippled children we have got those old boys on the hip, because we will be supporting an institution that has no equal nor any counterpart in all the world — one that makes for better humanity.

There is no backing away from the proposition now, even if there exists a Shriner who would for one moment entertain such an idea. We have crossed the Rubicon. We are committed.

The Imperial Council has placed an assessment of TWO DOLLARS on you and every other Shriner in the world. This is to be collected by the Recorders of the Temples in the same manner as dues, and will be billed on the statement which will be mailed you in November, and is to be paid before February, 1921. This, being an assessment, applies to life members as well as others.

Those of you who have been fortunate enough to hear Past Imperial Potentate Kendrick speak during the past year will remember how earnestly and enthusiastically he has espoused this cause, and it is mainly through his spirit and energy that the result has been attained.

Let every Shriner, therefore, promptly do his duty in this noble undertaking, remembering that angels can do no more. There are those who can and perhaps will donate hundreds, perhaps thousands, of dollars to this hospital, yet the Shriner who can spare only his assessment of two dollars, let him not forget that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

The Imperial Council Says So

One of the many things taken up at Portland in June last was this:

ARTICLE XIII, SECTION 6. No Temple shall carry a member on its books who is more than two years in arrears in dues, without taking action thereon.

This is new legislation. Heretofore Temples could carry members as long as they cared to, depending on their own by-laws and the leniency of their finance committees, etc. Henceforth the members must pay their dues, have them remitted, or be suspended for nonpayment after two years.

It is presumed to be more kind to the Noble to suspend him when he owes ten dollars than to carry him until he owes probably twenty-five, and then has to die down in his sock for that amount before he can secure the current year's card, when, if he had been suspended after two years he could be reinstated upon the payment of the ten dollars, no dues could accumulate against him during the time he was under suspension and had no benefits of membership, and it would be much easier for him to stage a "comeback."

We have quite a number of members who are going to be affected by this ruling within a few months and this warning should not go unheeded.

Your 1921 Card

Within a month this will be prepared for you and it will be printed with your address as now given in the envelope containing this notice. If this is not correct, please advise immediately.

Aleppo Employment Bureau

NOBLES, TEN-SHUN:

Say, fellows, Walter, our Pote, says, says he, that I am dormant on my job. Think of it, asleep! The nerve of him! But what can I do? I have plenty of applications from Nobles who want jobs, positions, or situations — whatever you want to call it. But the Nobles that want and could use good men, capable and trustworthy, don't come across. They don't let me know. Is it my fault?

Now, kidding, aside, Nobles, let me know by mail or phone what you want and I'll get the man for you. I'll not send a man to you unless I think he is capable and will work for your interest as well as his own.

This job of mine is a labor of love, so please help me.
